To whom it may concern,

Over a year ago I had an intellectual property issue with a Polish company.

I contracted a specialist lawyer here in Australia, who opened negotiations, but after 12 months was not able to achieve any result.

I subsequently contacted a number of legal companies in Poland.

Adwokat Igor Służalek inspired my confidence and was able to advise a number of affordable options.

Within 3 months he researched the other party, located the business owner and managed to negotiate payment of the original amount.

Igor also gave me guidance with international money transfers.

I also appreciate that he did not waste time or money with detailed translations, the brief updates were enough to keep me informed.

Yours sincerely,
